Master Barbara Dickens – 7th Dan Black Belt, Universal Way

PHILOSOPHY

My program teaches a variety of Martial Arts. The basic program is Korean Taekwondo, which means Art of Foot and Fist. Included are elements of Japanese/Okinawan Karate which means Art of Empty Hand, as well as techniques from Korean Hapkido which means Way of United Power. At the higher levels, I include Chinese Kung Fu which means Excellence in Knowledge.

Taekwondo and Karate are considered “hard arts” as they are very powerful and strong in movement. They are designed to increase strength and physical power. Kung Fu is a “soft art” and its focus is on long life, good health and internal peace and harmony. Teaching this variety of arts enables all to practice martial arts regardless of age, physical ability or limitations.

From Martial Arts training, children and adults can gain: self esteem, discipline, exercise, flexibility, increased energy levels, concentration, coordination, agility, patience, strong spirit, perseverance, integrity, courtesy, self-control and respect for self and others. Added to these fine qualities comes the knowledge of proven self-defense techniques.

I want students to achieve rank as they deserve. Rank level in Martial Arts is very important – the ranks are like steps up a ladder. Each level is similar to advancing a grade in school and is an accomplishment for each student to be very proud to have earned. I believe in what I teach; I live it and experience it daily. If I did not, I would not feel so strongly about its significance in the lives of my students.

Each student is expected and encouraged to progress through the course at his or her own pace. If the student stops training for an extended period, the right is reserved to charge tuition at the current rate offered.

White Horse Academy of Martial Arts obligates itself to furnish competent instructors. All classes, practice sessions, examinations (at an extra fee), and contests are supervised by Master Barbara Dickens or another designated, responsible adult instructor. Official belt recognition and certification will be issued upon completion of each examination.

The student, upon being admitted to join the Dojang, will: obey the rules, endeavor to conduct his or herself in a manner befitting a student even in daily life, respond with respect to instructors and fellow students, and never do anything to disgrace the Dojang.

I understand that my child’s strict observation of the rules and regulations relative to his or her training will largely eliminate the possibility of accident or injury. As part of this contract, I waive any claim to damages assessed against White Horse Academy of Martial Arts and/or its principals, instructors, and students in his or her training activity

NOTE: Uniforms must be purchased from White Horse Academy of Martial Arts so all students will be the same. Sparring gear must also be purchased from White Horse Academy of Martial Arts in order that insurance requirements may be met. Any sparring gear other than regulation will not be allowed. Uniforms and sparring gear are competitively or lower priced than stores and will be brought to class for the student
